

All welcome to the following talk organised by the Centre for Law, Gender and Sexuality, as part of the

Religion, Secularism & Sexuality Series

'The Lambeth Conference:
A View from the Fringe'

Lecture by

Bishop Gene Robinson

(Diocese of New Hampshire, USA)

Bishop Robinson is a prominent figure in efforts to include gays and lesbians within the Anglican Church. As the first openly gay bishop to be elected to office, he has not been invited to participate in the Lambeth Conference. He will reflect on issues of faith and sexuality in the Anglican Church.

Tuesday, 22 July 2008 at 5pm

Marlowe Building, Lecture Theatre One
University of Kent, Canterbury

For more information contact: E-mail: centre-lgs@kent.ac.uk
Website: <http://www.kent.ac.uk/clgs/>

